SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SCHOLARSHIP ~APPLICATION FORM~

The Second Congregational United Church of Christ will be awarding financial assistance annually in June from the Second Congregational Church Scholarship Fund to students; furthering their education beyond high school. Previous scholarships offered by Second Church have been incorporated in the newly established Second Congregational Church Scholarship.

Awards will be made to students, without regard to religious affiliation, place of residence, race, color, national origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, or disability. Awards will be made to those whose experiences and values are in keeping with the United Church of Christ's social justice mandates centering on equality for all:

- > Having exhibited a willingness to educate or serve others in a chosen career
- > Having a need for financial assistance

It is the responsibility of the applicant to submit application, grade transcripts and three letters of reference for review by the Scholarship Committee by the April 15 deadline. Incomplete scholarship applications will not be considered for an award.
